

PRESENTS...

PASSPORT TO DRY CREEK VALLEY

WEDNESDAY FEBRUARY 12, 2025 · 4PM - 7PM

Join us on Wednesday, February 12, for a special tasting featuring wines from the heart of Dry Creek Valley.

Dry Creek Valley is in northern Sonoma County in Healdsburg (just 67 miles north of SF), where more than 150 winegrowers and 70 wineries produce wines of excellence from an incredible variety of grapes. This diversity is due to the unique characteristics of the AVA, which comprises many different soil types, elevations and exposures to sun, wind, and water, all within a narrow and majestic 16-by-2-mile valley.

While you sip on exceptional wines, learn all about the can't-miss Passport to Dry Creek Valley, California's Friendliest Wine Festival event, and enter for a chance to win a special giveaway! Plus, for one-day only, snag exclusive savings on Passport tickets on-site. Don't miss this opportunity to experience the best of Dry Creek Valley and plan your next great wine adventure.

The flight wines are served as two-ounce pours and 5-ounce glasses.
