WINTER REDS

WITH ADAM MELENDREZ

WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 26, 2025 · 4PM - 7PM

Rosenthal Wine Merchant started in 1977 as a humble, one-man retail operation located in New York City but very much outside the mainstream of the wine business. Neal Rosenthal, having stepped away from his corporate and international law practice, was joined shortly thereafter by his partner Kerry Madigan, and the two expanded their fledgling company from its retail base to become an importer and distributor of fine wines. The objective from the outset was to work as directly as possible with growers who were dedicated to producing limited quantities of the finest quality wines and who shared the RWM passion for terroir—that ephemeral “sense of place.” Since their initial forays into France and Italy in 1979-1980, the RWM portfolio has grown to include over 150 different suppliers. These growers hail from almost every viticultural area of France and Italy, as well as the mountainous Valais and Vaud districts of Switzerland, Spanish Catalonia, and four of Austria’s major winegrowing regions.
