FARELLA

WITH TOM FARELLA

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 5, 2025 · 4PM - 7PM

Frank Farella founded Farella-Park Vineyards in 1985 in a small, 400 square foot winery next to his house in Napa. His long-sought goal to grow fine wine grapes began with his Italian grandparents at home—and after many home-made wines from the Napa and Alexander Valleys. Tom Farella's original inspiration to enter the wine trade began as a youngster at the dinner table and was later fortified by a family trip to France and some gentle prodding by father Frank. Tom graduated from UC Davis in 1983 with a degree in Viticulture and Enology while holding down weekend and harvest work with Neyers Vineyards and Flora Springs Winery. His first real job was as winemaker at Preston in Sonoma County, which he left after six years to work in Burgundy for Domaine Jacques Prieur in Meursault in 1989.

The work/travel bug persisted, so he then worked in Oregon for a harvest at Ponzi Winery in 1990, then in the vineyard for Beaux Frères in 1991. It was after these rich experiences that Tom Farella came back to Farella full-time.

While the first five vintages were produced by Frank Farella (with Tom's help), Tom took over in 1991 and led the winemaking until the end of 2018. Ryan Pass, also a UC Davis Viticulture and Enology graduate, was then promoted to Winemaker. His passion and skill set have dovetailed perfectly for the winemaking goals, and he and Tom continue to work together as the sole labor and expertise for production of Farella wines.

Additionally, in 2009, Tom petitioned the federal government for the designation of the Coombsville AVA, which eventually became Napa Valley's 16th sub-AVA in November 2011.
