LUIGI GIORDANO

AZIENDA AGRICOLA
BARBARESCO

with Matteo Rocca
Wednesday, March 16th, 4PM - 7PM

Join us as we welcome Matteo Rocca, Winemaker for Luigi Giordano, to our wine bar for a tour of Barbaresco!

Barbaresco—Barolo's sexy little cousin—is known for its energetic, terroir-driven wines (made from 100% Nebbiolo) and is arguably one of Italy's greatest winemaking regions. Its unique microclimate produces wines with finesse that are fresh, structured AND age-worthy—a wine-lover's trifecta! World-class wines have been produced in the region for generations, but few producers rival this relatively small, family producer. We are thrilled to welcome—all the way from Italy—Luigi Giordano winemaker, Matteo Rocca, who will be presenting a selection of his current releases.

Founded by Giovanni Giordano in the 1930s, the winery and its vineyards are located a stone's throw from the village center of Barbaresco. In 1960, Giovanni's son, Luigi, made the bold decision to vinify his own grapes—rather than just sell them. Today, Luigi Giordano is a fourth-generation winery—three of which are actively involved in day-to-day winery operations: Luigi, his daughter, Laura and her son, Matteo; with vineyards planted in some of Barbaresco's most prestigious crus, including Asili and Montestefano. The calling card of the winery is the single-vineyard Barbaresco bottling from Cavanna, which showcases the winery's elegant, hands-off style of winemaking and is the only single-vineyard cru of its kind on the market.

Inspired by the rich history of Nebbiolo's use as a base for sparkling wines (documented 100 years before the advent of Barolo or Barbaresco), Matteo now produces a hand-riddled, hand-disgorged méthode champenoise sparkling rosato, which will initiate the evening's lineup.
