PEAY

with Andy Peay

Wednesday, May 11th, 4PM - 7PM

The Peay brothers searched up and down the West Coast looking for a location to grow cool climate Pinot Noir and Syrah. They finally found a beautiful piece of land high atop a ridge of sloping hills just four miles from the Pacific Ocean on the remote northwest corner of West Sonoma Coast. What was once an apple orchard became a prime vineyard site where they eventually planted 51 acres of vines mostly to Pinot Noir, with Syrah, Chardonnay, Viognier, Marsanne and Roussanne rounding out the mix. Nick had years of experience in winemaking and was particularly interested in winegrowing, understanding how vital the health of the soil is to the quality of the fruit on the vine. Once he met and fell in love with Vanessa Wong, who was making quite a name for herself as winemaker for Peter Michael, he happily turned over the winemaking duties to her when she officially joined the brothers in 2001. Nick focuses his abundant energy managing the organically farmed vineyards while Andy oversees the sales and marketing, running the business of Peay Vineyards. Together, all three of them get to share their passion and enthusiasm for producing world-class small production gems from their little piece of heaven.

Peay Vineyards Flight Night is always a much-anticipated event, and this year is an especially fantastic opportunity to experience some wonderful bottlings from Peay Vineyards, including three library wines. Andy is really excited about how well the current releases are showing; plus, we will explore how well these wines age alongside the 2019 vintage.
