

PATIO WINE BAR PRODUCER TASTING

Please join us Wednesday, May 26th any time between 4:00-7:00 pm, when we welcome Mick Unti back to our wine bar on the patio for an al fresco flight night!

Father and son , George and Mick Unti are the co-owners of Unti Vineyards.

George Unti grew up in a California farming family. His first and only job was at Safeway in Fort Bragg, where he went on to enjoy a successful 39-year career. In 1990, George and his wife, Linda, realized their dream to return to the farm life with the purchase of land in Dry Creek Valley. They planted vines shortly thereafter. Their son, Mick, joined them in 1997, and together they founded Unti Vineyards & Winery.

Mick had graduated from University of Washington with a degree in Broadcast Communication and Political Science. He claims he “took the easy way out” and gravitated to wine. He has worked in almost all facets of the wine industry, from retail to wholesale to production. The vineyards have been farmed organically since 2003. Mick manages the winemaking, sales and marketing, and you are still likely to see both Mick and his dad working in their lively tasting room in Dry Creek Valley.

Given their Italian heritage and their taste for Mediterranean-style wines, Unti Vineyards is not only planted to Zinfandel and Petite Sirah, but also to the Rhône varietals Syrah, Grenache Noir, Mourvèdre, Grenache Blanc and Picpoul. The assortment of Italian varietals is even wider, including Barbera, Aglianico, Montepulciano, Sangiovese, Cilieggiolo, Mammolo, Lacrima di Morro d’Alba, Verdicchio, Vermentino and Fiano.
