Provence is the birthplace of Rosé, and worldwide wine-lovers have embraced the Rosé trend. However, Provence is less well-known for the outstanding variety of its terroirs. The Côtes-de-Provence appellation alone spans six vast territories, running from East to West, each with its own unique soil type, geography, and climate.

Join us for a virtual tasting trip to two renowned Estates...

Château de Berne—a historically exceptional site and symbol of timeless elegance—built by the Romans, this 1,700-acre site with 353 acres of organic and sustainably-farmed vineyards is nestled in the rolling hills of Provence in the South of France. A remote winding road leads to the estate within a nature preserve with over 60 acres of hiking and biking trails. Berne features a 5-star Relais & Châteaux Hotel, award-winning spa, Green Star awarded property, Michelin, and Green Star restaurant. It also includes a cooking school, pools, tennis courts, and olive groves.

Ultimate Provence is an established 100-acre estate that has made wine for over 40 years. The recently renovated, modern and vibrant wine destination invokes the vibes of nearby Saint-Tropez, France. With its sleek design, a chic boutique hotel, UP Estate tends to make a lasting wine destination impression. The estate includes the UP-Tasting Lounge, an enormous rooftop terrace featuring Rosé cocktails and a resident DJ. Guests can enjoy the outdoor pool surrounded by organic grape vines including Syrah, Cinsault, Grenache Noir and Rolle (Vermentino).
