

FLIGHT NIGHT FEATURING:

WITH LARRY STONE
WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 26, 2026 • 4PM - 7PM

Join us for our next Flight Night featuring Lingua Franca, hosted by co-founder Larry Stone, Master Sommelier. Discover wines shaped by the cool-climate beauty of Oregon’s Eola-Amity Hills, where Lingua Franca crafts site-driven Pinot Noir and Chardonnay. Born from the acquisition of the Janzen Farm in Oregon’s Willamette Valley, Lingua Franca was founded with a singular vision: to craft wines of precision, purity, and elegance from a remarkable site long sought after by Oregon’s top winemakers. Guided by low-impact, organic, and regenerative farming, and shaped by the expertise of vineyard consultant Mimi Casteel, the estate vineyard was planted to reflect its diverse soils and unique character.

The result is exceptional Pinot Noir and Chardonnay of striking finesse, drawing the attention of Burgundy’s Dominique Lafon, who first urged Larry to start a winemaking operation after he had planned and planted the vineyard. They were soon joined by Thomas Savre, who volunteered to help realize the vineyard’s full potential, bringing with him impressive credentials, having worked for Domaine de la Romanée-Conti and Domaine Dujac in his early years, and continuing to work with Bertrand de Villaine. With the Willamette Valley’s cool climate and Burgundy-like growing conditions, Lingua Franca continues to produce wines defined by site, balance, and an abiding respect for the land.

Come taste the wines and experience the story behind one of Oregon’s most compelling estates, and enjoy an afternoon with one of the industry’s most respected voices.

The flight wines are served as two-ounce pours & 5-oz glasses.
