

BLIND TASTING GAME NIGHT MATCH THE WINE TO THE PRICE

WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 30, 2026 • 4PM - 7PM

Join us for an evening of tasting, guessing, and a little friendly competition at our upcoming Blind Tasting Game Night: Match the Wine to the Price.

#SpainFoodNation

This time, we're heading to Spain for a five-wine exploration of Tempranillo and its many expressions—from bright, youthful, fruit-driven reds to mature, traditionally styled Gran Reservas. Your challenge: taste your way through the lineup and match each wine to its correct price point, ranging from $16 to $123.

The wines span several key Spanish regions and styles: Rioja, Ribera del Duero, and Tierra de Castilla. Along the way, we'll consider what shapes a wine's value—from vine age, vineyard site, and appellation to aging regimen, bottle age, producer reputation, and the patient economics of holding a wine for years before release.

Will the nearly three-decade-old Rioja announce itself immediately? Can you spot the difference between a young, oak-kissed Ribera del Duero and a polished Rioja Reserva? And does the most expensive wine necessarily taste the most "expensive"?

The format is simple: we'll pour five wines on a tasting mat and provide a list of possible price matches. Our staff will offer as much—or as little—guidance as you'd like.

Come test your palate, trust your instincts, and perhaps rethink what value tastes like in the glass.
