The Far Niente legacy dates to 1885, when John Benson turned his dream into reality, constructing the iconic Far Niente stone winery in the heart of Napa Valley. In 1979, the Nickel family continued this rich heritage, meticulously restoring Far Niente to its original grandeur, establishing an internationally acclaimed world-class winery celebrated for its Chardonnay and Cabernet Sauvignon in the heart of Oakville. Preserving and advancing the Napa legacy that began over 135 years ago has been the driving force behind Far Niente Wine Estates.

Today, the Far Niente portfolio includes Nickel & Nickel, a pioneer in single-vineyard, single-varietal Cabernet Sauvignon, Bella Union, dedicated to showcasing diverse expressions of Rutherford Cabernet Sauvignon, Post & Beam, where they employ time-honored techniques to craft a contemporary and approachable style of wine, EnRoute, devoted to producing world-class Pinot Noir, and Dolce, recognized as America's leading late-harvest wine. Far Niente Wine Estates is unwavering in its commitment to responsible and sustainable winemaking. As custodians of the land entrusted to them, they prioritize minimizing their environmental impact while maximizing care for the environment.
